

“The best serials you’ll ever read!”

Quality Serials By Mary Maden

Dreams Come True: The Story of the First Flight

Information Sheet

Dreams Come True: The Story of the First Flight is written by award-winning Kitty Hawk author, Mary Maden, and illustrated by Vicki Wallace. This story was seven years in the making! Dreams Come True can be published in either 14 or 16 chapters and is designed to run in weekly installments or more frequently.

Story Description:

You will feel the wind in your face and the sand under your feet as you read this exciting serial story! Dreams Come True: The Story of the First Flight tells the inspiring and fascinating story of how two brothers from Ohio defied the odds to make their dream of human flight a reality. The author pulls the Wright Brothers’ actual words and feelings from their diaries and letters and weaves them into an exciting adventure story that will have your readers anxiously awaiting each new installment.

The story follows Wilbur and Orville from their first interest in flight as boys to their triumphant first flight at Kitty Hawk on December 17, 1903 — and finally to Huffman Prairie, Ohio. There they refined their airplane for practical use and changed our world forever as they ushered in the “Age of Flight.”

This uplifting story shows how these unassuming brothers achieved extraordinary things, not by genius alone, but also by perseverance, their belief in themselves and the conviction of their ideas. The Wright Brothers not only gave the world the gift of flight, but also showed us that if we believe in ourselves we can achieve incredible things and make our own dreams come true! Full of facts, warmth and humor, Dreams Come True: The Story of the First Flight, will inspire, educate and entertain.

Story Specifics:

- Suggested reading level: 3rd — 9th. Read aloud for all ages.
- Length of chapters: 800 words precisely. No more, no less!
- Includes two pieces of logo art and one piece of art per chapter — 16 illustrations. Art comes in black and white or color in tiff or jpeg files.
- Teaching Aids included FREE with your serial story are: A Teacher’s Guide, “Cast of Characters,” Wright Brothers’ Timeline and “Dreams Come True: The Power Point.”